

Campbell

James Campbell
David Campbell 1791? -1873?
Grace Campbell 1831 – 1923

Campbell Surname

Henry Harrison's Surnames of the United Kingdom, A Concise Etymological dictionary entry: CAMPBELL. If the Campbells are of Celtic origin the name prob. means WRY MOUTH [Gael, cam, rooked, wry + beul, mouth]: cp. Cameron. If they-are of French origin the name = FAIR FIELD [Nor. Fr. camp, Lat. camp-us, a field + Fr. bel, Lat. MI-us, fair]: cp. the Fr. place-name Montbel.

James Campbell

David Campbell

David Campbell is believed to have been born in Scotland. It is believed he married Margaret Annison Roddick about 1825.

Their children include,

James Campbell, b. 11 January 1826, baptised 5 August 1826 Annan Dumfriesshire
William Campbell, baptism 26 August 1827,
Janet Campbell, b. 6 August 1829, baptism 4 October 1829
Grace Campbell b. 5 March 1831, baptism 30 October 1831
David Campbell b. 26 May 1835 in Annan Dumfriesshire, Scotland
Mary Campbell b. 12 August 1837, Annan, Dumfriesshire, Scotland, baptism 6 November 1837, Middlebie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland
George Campbell b. 26 Jan 1840, baptism 27 May 1840 Middlebie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland
John Harkness Campbell b. 28 February 1842, baptism 20 April 1842 Middlebie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland
Alexander Campbell b. 1 March 1846, baptism 28 November 1846 Middlebie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland
John Campbell b. 16 August 1848, baptism 2 November 1848 Middlebie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland

David Campbell died on 18 Nov 1873 ? Middlebie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland

Grace Campbell

Grace Campbell, daughter of David Campbell and Margaret Annison Roddick, was born 12 August 1831 in the Annan, Dumfriesshire, Scotland.

She married Daniel McNab in Middlebie, Dumfriesshire, Scotland on 1 June 1855. The birth of her first son preceded the wedding on 30 April 1855. They move to Canada in 1856 according to some family information or 1858 according to the 1901 census. The birth of her second son David McNab is in Port Hope, Ontario on 6 February 1857. Her first daughter Jane “Jean” McNab (our line) is born on 6 November 1858 according to 1901 Census and marriage records but 1859 according to many family trees. The second daughter Margaret was born 29 February 1860. They remained in Huron County Ontario at least for the 1881 census but by the 1891 census they had moved to Manitoba, Census Marquette District.

In 1901 she was living in Manitoba Census District Macdonald District 8 Sub-district Langford (E-4) along with her husband Daniel and granddaughter Elizabeth McNab, born 11 April 1892. Elizabeth was the daughter of David McNab and Elizabeth Govenlock (who died 3 days after delivery of Elizabeth). Grace (Campbell) McNab’s birthdate on the census is given as 13 August 1831 in Scotland.

In 1906 she resided in Portage La Prairie, Manitoba with her husband Daniel and granddaughter Elizabeth McNab. Her husband Daniel dies on 28 November 1906. In 1911 she continues to reside in Portage La Prairie and in addition to Elizabeth (Lizzie) she has Jean McNab as well. In 1921 she has moved in with her daughter Margaret Sangster in Neepawa.

She died in Neepawa, Manitoba 21 April 1923 in the Langford Hospital at the age of 91 [death registration 1923-016417]. She is buried at Plot lot 102 Block 13 in Riverside Cemetery, Neepawa, Manitoba